...of the Federation of Indian Chambers of Commerce & Industry (FICCI) in partnership with Friedrich Naumann Foundation regional directorate, New Delhi.

About 300 delegates from across South Asia are expected to participate in the Conclave which is being organised under the theme "South Asian Century: Progressing towards Regional Integration" while focusing on important contemporary and emerging issues. The inaugural session will be followed by Ministerial Round "Taking Stock of the South Asian Economic Integration Process" wherein Commerce/Economic Affairs Ministers from Afghanistan, Bhutan, India, Maldives, Nepal, Pakistan and Sri Lanka will share their vision to foster regional integration process in South Asia. In addition to five sessions on important issues like energy-cooperation, entrepreneurship development, South Asia in 21st Century and others the Conclave also includes dedicated session on youth.

In addition to Indian commerce minis-
